Trust as Beneficiary:

Before designating a trust as the beneficiary of your plan benefit, you should consult an attorney with expertise in trusts and estates law. Some of the factors to consider include:

- Who is going to be the beneficiary – your spouse, a minor child – and what are their financial needs?
- Are the protections of a trust desirable?
- What are the income tax consequences of designating a trust as beneficiary?

The following requirements must be satisfied before your trust beneficiaries will be treated as your retirement plan’s designated beneficiary:

- The trust must be valid under state law.
- The trust must be irrevocable or must, by its terms, become irrevocable on your death.
- The trust’s beneficiaries must be identifiable from the trust instrument.
- You must provide trust documentation to the retirement plan administrator.
- All trust beneficiaries must be individuals.
